

IN:VISIONARY ART GALLERY

Supporting the free growth of visionary culture, the emerging art movement seeks the re-socialization and empowerment of the creative spirit. Utilizing the inspired imagination as a tool for exploring our relationship with the planet, visionary arts bring new direction to the collective destiny of our world. This year's In:Vision Festival features a full spread art gallery featuring local artists as well as representations from up and down the West Coast. There will also be live performance painting. Last year, lucidome is reborn as a starship class vessel for exploring the art in all aspects of our lives. Get dipped into a colorful world of spirit and wonder, meet art and artist, as energy gathers from intentional communities all over the West Coast.

LEFT COAST LIQUID

du:tempo/ScDM

The second release from Native State Records is coming soon. For a limited time, you can pre-order a copy for only $10 with the purchase of your In:Vision - Left Coast issue: June 2008 - North America / Oct 2008 - Worldwide

Left coast liquid v01 is a lush and dynamic compilation exploring the tranquil territory between established downtempo genres and IDM. Featuring 10 intricate soundscapes and original tracks from a diverse and talented line up of electronic musicians, this album marks a new phase in the proliferation of global club culture.

Based in BC, Native State Records is the seed project of Evan Blawiech who launched the label with his highly acclaimed elementary particles ep early in 2004. This album was later added to and released world-wide by Alaska Zero Records in March.

For the second release, Native State brings together hybrid forms of the organic and the electronic, revealing new dimensions of digital music. Left Coast Liquid is a relaxing journey into the liminal spaces of sonic fusion.
